O'IL LAND LEASES ON KANAWHA RIVER FOR EALE.

'welfé leases on as many tracts of land situated on the banks of the river, amounting in the aggregate to two thousand acrea. These lands are in the immediate visinity of the famous Rathbone property, on which have been opmed wells that are now yielding truty heredbile quantities. One well alone known as the Lewellyn Well, yields constantly aftly barrels as hour. This well was opened in January in it, and has yielded a princely fortune to the proprietors already.
Five hundred scres of the lands—the mining leases on which are hereby offered for sale—are situated only one mile distant from this Lewellyn well.

The facts respecting the yield of oil wells are so well substantiated that the product is new looked upon as acertain source of wealth to all that region of country. The railroad companies are now directing their attention to the proparatiems for the large transportation business that has grown out of it, and branch rads are bing constructed from the main lines into the oil fields. The lands hereby offered are the only ones of good location had are now in the market, the whole country for miles back from the rever being under prising merchants from Soston New seddord and New ork have made large invosuments, as do those who have failed to expan be presented.

The KANAWHA OIL WEIGLS.

The excitement attending the recent oil discoveries on the Kanawha continues unabsted. Late accounts state that the Kanawha river is literally covered with flatbasts, and the boosimen are now on a strike. They ask two soliurs to loaned for taking the grease to Farkersburg. The producers are only willing to give a dollar and fry ceats. Lands are leased on both sides of the Kanawha at enormous rates, the leases extending from four to five miles into the interior. The number engaged in the production of oil from Parkeraburg to
